The Commonwealth of The Bahamas

The Bahamas is an archipelago comprising 700 islands lying off the coast of Florida with 30 of the islands being inhabited. Tourism and Finance are the two mainstays of the economy with much of the activity being focused on Nassau, the commercial centre and the nation's capital.

Financial institutions are licensed by the Central Bank and The Securities Commission of The Bahamas, the former of which is also responsible for the supervisory and regulatory framework as well as ensuring that parity of the Bahamian dollar is maintained against the U.S. Dollar.

The Bahamas achieved independence in 1973 and is a self-governing member of the Commonwealth. It is also a member of the United Nations, the Caribbean Community and the Organization of American States. Queen Elizabeth II is the Head of State.

Government Legislation

In 2004, the Government of The Bahamas enacted legislation to permit the establishment of Foundations, reinforcing the already comprehensive legislation aimed at the private wealth management industry.

Whilst foundations have been used in parallel with trusts in estate planning for many years, they have a key distinguishing feature. Unlike trusts, foundations are legal entities and can therefore act and contract with third parties in their own right.

Bahamian Foundations

The Bahamas pioneered the use of Foundations, being the first common law country to introduce them specifically for the cross-border asset holding market. Individuals who own assets outside their home country would be well advised to consider the features and benefits of holding these assets in a Bahamian foundation structure.

Features

- ◆ A legal entity with limited liability designed specifically to hold assets and to operate in its own right
- ◆ Enables individuals to create a succession plan for their cross-border assets with considerable freedom and security
- ◆ Foundations can hold a wide range of assets, including bank accounts, portfolios, real estate and family companies
- ◆ A foundation does not have shareholders, but instead has beneficiaries who are nominated within the foundation charter or articles
- ◆ When establishing a foundation an individual can retain powers to suit personal needs
- ◆ Can be used for personal, charitable or commercial purposes
- ◆ As a distinct legal entity a foundation can sue and be sued in its own right
- ◆ Retains accounting books and records, although not for publication
- ◆ A foundation may exist for any length of time – and even indefinitely

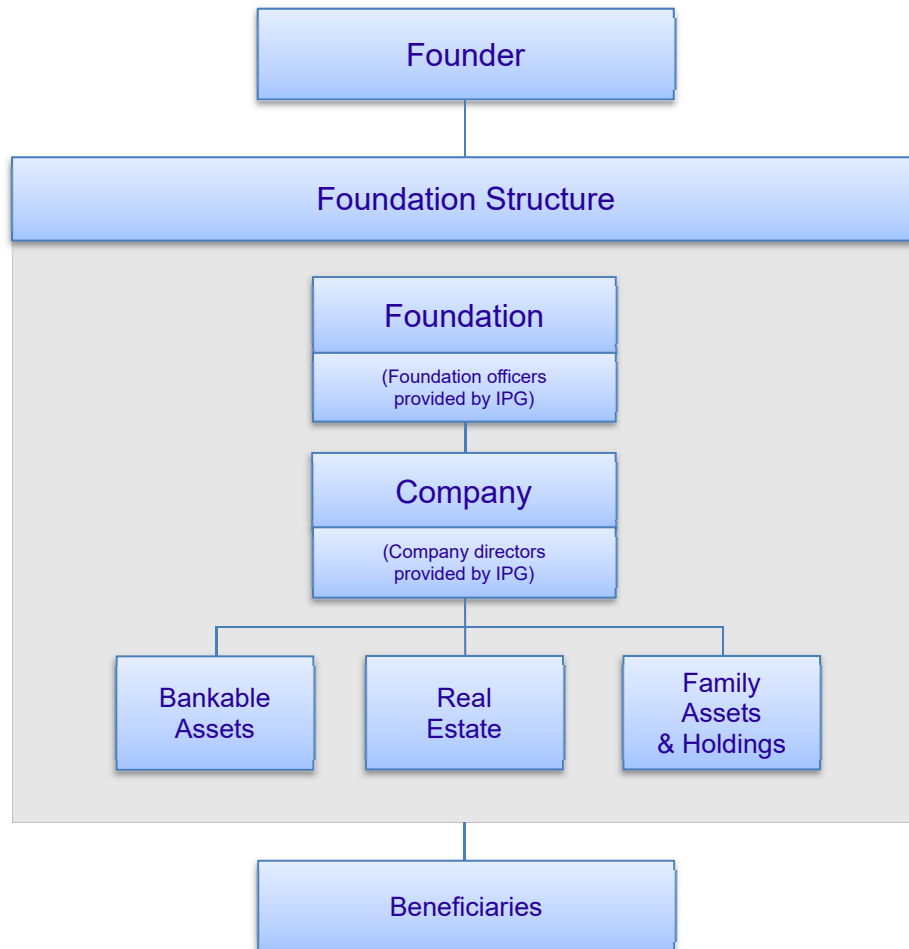

Benefits

- ◆ Recognised across the world in both civil and common law countries
- ◆ Absence of Bahamian reporting requirements or direct taxation yield a high level of discretion, flexibility and comfort
- ◆ Bahamian foundations benefit from the country's rigorous asset and inheritance protection laws
- ◆ Foundations can be transferred to other service providers and even to other jurisdictions
- ◆ Details of beneficiaries or the beneficiaries themselves can be amended or updated at any time during the foundation's existence
- ◆ Assets can be added, sold and distributed at any time

Uses

- ◆ Estate planning
- ◆ Holding bankable assets
- ◆ Holding cross-border assets
- ◆ Asset protection
- ◆ Preserving confidentiality
- ◆ Philanthropy and charities
- ◆ Tax planning
- ◆ Preserving family wealth
- ◆ Owning family companies
- ◆ Acting as protector
- ◆ Segregation of assets
- ◆ Owning Private Trust Companies
- ◆ Holding off-balance sheet assets

Typical Foundation Structure

IPG Services

Bahamas Foundations Fact Sheet

- 1) What are the applicable laws and regulations enacted by the Government of The Bahamas that apply specifically to foundations?

The Foundations Act, 2004
The Foundations Regulations, 2004
The Foundations (Amendment) Act, 2005
The Foundations (Amendment) Act, 2007

- 2) What is the legal form of a foundation?

It is a legal entity in its own right. It is able to contract with third parties; it can also sue and be sued in its own name

- 3) Who can be a founder?

The founder can be a natural person or a legal entity. Nominee founders are permitted

- 4) Does a foundation pay taxes in The Bahamas?

Foundations do not pay any taxes in The Bahamas. Instead, each foundation must pay registration and annual fees to the Government

- 5) What are the registration and annual fees payable to the Government Registrar?

Initial registration fees		Annual fee (second year onwards)	$500
First quarter of calendar year	$500
Second quarter of calendar year	$375
Third quarter of calendar year	$250
Fourth quarter of calendar year	$125

- 6) Who can be on the foundation council?

Where the foundation charter provides for a foundation council, it shall comprise a minimum of two natural persons or one natural person and one legal entity or just one legal entity

- 7) Is a foundation secretary mandatory?

The secretary must be resident in The Bahamas and each foundation must have one

- 8) Are the names of the beneficiaries available on public record?

No

- 9) What are the minimum assets a foundation must have when it is registered?

The initial assets must be a minimum of $10,000 or the equivalent in another currency. When assets are transferred to a foundation, they cease to be the property of the founder

- 10) Before registration, how long can a foundation name be reserved for?

Reservation of a name is made online and is valid for 90 days.

- 11) Each foundation must have its own Charter document, but does it require Articles as well?

Articles are not required by the law. In their absence, the provisions of the Act will apply

12) Is the foundation Charter filed at the Government registry?

The Charter may but need not be filed at the registry. When it is not filed, a registration statement providing extracts of the Charter in a prescribed form may be filed instead

13) Which foundation details are available at the Registry?

Name of the foundation
Date of the Charter (and Articles if any)
Its purpose or objects
Name of the Founder and an address in The Bahamas for the service of documents
Name and address of the foundation council or other governing body or supervisory person if such are appointed
Address of the registered office
Time period for which the foundation is established
Value of the initial assets

14) Are certificates of good standing available online?

Yes

15) How long does it take to register a new foundation?

One business day

16) What are the requirements for accounting records?

Full and proper books and records must be maintained by the foundation. An auditor need not be appointed if this is expressly permitted in the foundation's Charter

17) Does a foundation require a seal?

No, although the use of one is permitted in the Law

18) Which statutory details must appear on the letterhead of a foundation?

The full name of the foundation in legible characters; the place of registration; the registration number; the address of the registered office

19) Can a foundation be transferred to another jurisdiction?

Providing the other jurisdiction supports foundations and their migration, a foundation can be removed from the Bahamian registry and transferred to the new jurisdiction

20) Do statutory procedures exist for the liquidation of a foundation?

Yes

21) What happens for non-payment of the Government fees?

A foundation will be struck off and automatically dissolved

ARTICLE 1: PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of these Terms and Conditions of Business is to govern the relationship between IPG Family Office Limited, registered in The Bahamas as one of its subsidiaries or associated companies (hereinafter referred to as "IPG") and the contracting party (hereinafter referred to as the "Client"). IPG will, at the request of the Client, provide the services requested ("the specified services") subject to these terms and conditions for the Executive Entity, company and/or foundation ("entity"). The terms of the governing instrument of an entity or of another agreement with IPG in respect of an entity shall prevail over these Terms and Conditions of Business. IPG may act through its duly authorized directors, officers, shareholders, agents, nominees and employees in the exercise of its powers and duties when providing the specified services.

ARTICLE 2: INDEMNIFICATION

In consideration of IPG agreeing to provide the specified services the Client shall fully and absolutely hold harmless and indemnify IPG, its directors, officers, shareholders, agents, nominees and employees ("Indemnitee" or collectively "Indemnitees") in respect of any liability in the form of loss, claims, costs, charges and expenses whatsoever made by any company or person in respect of the specified services including, but not limited to, any acts or omissions in the carrying out of any instructions which it believes to have been genuinely given by the Client and any special, consequential, punitive or similar damages, suffered by IPG or any shareholder thereof.

The Client shall fully and absolutely hold harmless and indemnify the Indemnitees in respect of any liability arising from any adverse judgements, or otherwise, in respect of any claim, action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal or administrative), including any amount paid to settle a claim or action or satisfy a judgement, which liability arises directly or indirectly by reason of the Indemnitees (a) appearing on the register as shareholders of a company, (b) holding any office or directorship in a company, (c) holding the office of Administrator and/or Registrar and Transfer Agent and/or Custodian or (d) taking or failing to take action in their respective official capacities with regard to the affairs of a company, business or other entity, provided that such liability shall not be due to the wilful default or actual fraud on the part of the Indemnitees.

The indemnities shall be enforceable against the funds in IPG's hands or assets under its control in respect of all actions, proceedings, claims, costs, charges and expenses whatsoever and wheresoever made against or incurred by it arising out of or in connection with the administration by IPG of the Executive Entity, foundation, company, business or other entity, and IPG shall have a lien on all such funds and assets until the amount of such claims, costs, charges and expenses in any current or pending actions or claims has been determined.

Reasonable expenses incurred by an Indemnitee who is a party or witness in a proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by IPG in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt by IPG of: (i) a written affirmation by such Indemnitee of such Indemnitee's good faith belief that the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by IPG, as stated in the Articles of Association of a company, has been met, and (ii) a written undertaking by or on behalf of such Indemnitee to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it shall ultimately be judicially determined that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder.

IPG shall be entitled to take legal advice and, when so advised, to bring or defend or authorize the bringing or defending of any action, proceeding or claim without the express consent of the Client. The cost and expense of any such advice and of any legal action shall be borne by the Client.

The foregoing exculpation and indemnity provisions are in addition and without prejudice to all other exculpations and indemnities expressed or implied for the benefit of the Indemnitees or generally available to the Indemnitees in law or otherwise. All indemnities to which the Indemnitees are entitled shall continue notwithstanding the termination of the relationship with the Client or entity.

If no complaint or objection is made in writing to IPG within thirty (30) days, the actions carried out by IPG, as well as its statements of account and other notifications shall be considered to have been approved by the Client.

IPG reserves the right to require the Client to sign a document acknowledging receipt of any document.

ARTICLE 3: SIGNATURES AND AUTHENTICATION

Powers of Attorney and specimen signatures provided to IPG shall always be considered valid unless and until it is notified in writing that they have been revoked or changed in any way. The Client shall be held liable for any damages of any kind resulting from falsification or failed authentication which may escape notice when normal verification is performed, unless there is gross negligence on the part of IPG.

ARTICLE 4: LEGAL INCOMPETENCE

The Client shall be held liable for any damages which may result from the fact that the Client or a third party has become incompetent, unless IPG has been so informed in writing. The Client shall always be held liable for the consequences of any of his attorneys becoming incompetent.

ARTICLE 5: MAIL SENT BY IPG

Regularly mailed correspondence shall be deemed to have been delivered when mailed by IPG. Correspondence retained by IPG in accordance with the Client's instructions shall also be deemed to have been duly delivered when retained electronically or physically, even though it may not actually be handed over or sent until a later date. The Client therefore assumes full responsibility for any consequences and possible damages that might result from the retaining of the correspondence. IPG is under no obligation whatsoever to administer the client's funds unless the undersigned has given specific instructions to this effect. Correspondence not collected by the Client will be destroyed by IPG seven (7) years after its date of issue.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, IPG hereby reserves the right to communicate directly with the Client if circumstances arise which IPG determines warrant such action.

ARTICLE 6: COMMUNICATION BY TELEPHONE OR BY OTHER MEANS

The Client may communicate with IPG by telephone, facsimile, email or other forms of telecommunication and shall alone assume all the risks and bear all the consequences of such communication. If the Client wishes to use e-mail to communicate with IPG the Client's attention is drawn to the fact that messages sent by the Internet cannot be secured, that neither the Client's nor IPG's identity as an Internet user, nor the content of any messages, can be kept secret, and also that data that flows between the Client and IPG, whether encrypted or not, may enable third parties to infer the existence of a service provider relationship.

Although under no obligation to do so, IPG reserves the right to require particulars enabling it to ensure the identity of the originator of an order or to require written confirmation of any order or instruction given by any form of telecommunication. It shall assume no liability for refusing to execute orders placed by persons who, in its judgement, have not been properly identified.

ARTICLE 7: RELEASE FROM RISKS INHERENT IN MEANS OF COMMUNICATION

If use is made of the mail service, the telephone, a facsimile machine or any other means of transmission or transportation, the Client shall assume all the risks and bear all the consequences which that may entail and, unless there is gross negligence on its part, IPG shall assume no liability with respect to whether messages are authentic, confidential, understandable, misrouted, delayed, lost or not received in full, or whether there may be identification errors.

ARTICLE 8: COMPLAINTS

Clients shall have thirty (30) days to make any complaint in writing with respect to the execution or non-execution of instructions of any kind, or to financial statements or any other information provided by IPG, starting from the date of receipt of the documents concerned or the date on which they are placed in the Clients' retained correspondence.

If Clients fail to receive advices or notifications which they are expecting, the above period shall commence on the date on which such advices or notifications would normally have been received or placed in the Clients' retained correspondence.

ARTICLE 9: FAULTY EXECUTION OF INSTRUCTIONS

In the event of damages resulting from non-execution or incorrect, incomplete or belated execution of instructions (other than buy and sell orders), IPG shall, unless there has been gross negligence on its part, assume liability only for interest lost, unless its attention had been drawn in writing to the risk of more extensive damages.

In all cases, unless there has been gross negligence on its part, IPG's liability shall be limited to the amount directly lost by the Client on the transaction concerned and shall not extend to any liability for other indirect or ancillary damages.

IPG will not be required to carry out instructions or comply with any directions which it considers may be unlawful under the laws of The Bahamas or contrary to the public policy of The Bahamas or be unlawful under the laws of any other place having jurisdiction or applicable in the place where such instructions or directions are to be performed. IPG is authorized, but not required, to take any action which it deems necessary whenever it is impractical or impossible to obtain instructions from the Client in due time or whenever action is stated to be required by law or by rulings or practice of appropriate authorities, local or foreign, in which instance, IPG shall not be required to determine whether such actions were required or necessary according to the correct interpretation of such law, rulings, or practice or to contest or otherwise oppose such action(s). IPG shall not be liable in any way for acting or not acting in accordance with opinions, advice, instructions, requests, certificates, powers of attorney, or other instruments believed by it to be genuine.

Terms and Conditions of Business

ARTICLE 10: RECORDING OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS

For the purpose of ensuring that oral instructions or other messages received from the Client or third parties are authentic and understandable, the Client agrees to allow IPG to record all telephone conversations between its staff members and the Client, the Client's attorneys or any other third parties. In the event of dispute, IPG reserves the right to use such recorded conversations as evidence.

ARTICLE 11: FEES AND CHARGES

IPG shall, unless agreed otherwise in writing by IPG, be entitled to remuneration in accordance with its Schedule of Fees in force from time to time and shall be authorized to debit the entity with any and all fees, commissions, custodial fees, brokerage fees and other charges.

IPG reserves the right to charge a flat fee for its services and those of its correspondents. The Client shall also reimburse IPG for any and all expenses, charges and taxes incurred by it in the carrying out of the specified services.

In the event that any fees, expenses and other charges of IPG remain unpaid for a period of thirty (30) days from the date billed, then IPG shall have the right to suspend the specified services and is authorized to collect such fees from any entity or entities and is specifically authorized hereby to effect the sale of any securities or other assets owned by such entity or entities to settle the outstanding fees, expenses and other charges.

The Client shall reimburse IPG for any other expenses related to the specified services, including compensation for the services of professional advisors or sub-attorneys where such services are required in relation to all transactions or to any exceptional action. The Client shall also indemnify IPG for any damages resulting from such situations, unless there has been gross negligence on the part of IPG.

IPG reserves the right to amend its Schedule of Fees at any time. The Client shall be informed of such amendments in writing or in any other appropriate manner. If such amendments are not protested within thirty (30) days, they shall be considered to have been approved.

ARTICLE 12: PERSONAL AND TAX STATUS OF THE CLIENT

The Client shall be responsible for providing IPG with the information required for IPG to fulfil its contractual or regulatory obligations, either voluntarily or at IPG's request. The Client undertakes to inform IPG within thirty (30) days of any change in the Client's personal status, in particular a change of tax domicile or nationality. The Client shall be held liable by IPG for any damages which may result from receiving incorrect information about the Client's personal and tax status.

IPG strongly recommends that the Client take advice from a tax expert in the jurisdiction of his tax domicile. IPG shall assume no liability for claims relating to the types of investment or the administration of the Client's assets by IPG which may result from the lack of such advice or from incorrect or insufficient advice. The Client undertakes to continue to acquaint himself with prevailing and/or material tax issues that may have a bearing on the business and ownership of an entity.

Where it is required by the domestic law of the Client that he arranges for the appointment of an agent the Client undertakes full responsibility for the decision as to the appointment or the failure to appoint such agent and he indemnifies IPG and holds IPG harmless for such decision.

For the avoidance of doubt it is clearly understood that IPG does not provide legal, taxation, investment or accountancy advice.

By entering into a relationship with IPG the Client confirms that he is solvent and is not disposing of assets to which a creditor or other person has any legal right to or claim or interest in.

ARTICLE 13: DUTY NOT TO INTERFERE

IPG does not have a duty to interfere in the business of any underlying or affiliated businesses of an entity. All documentation and/or information IPG may request concerning such businesses must be provided to IPG without delay.

ARTICLE 14: DATA PROTECTION AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Within the limits of the laws protecting the fundamental rights of persons whose particulars are subject to processing, IPG is authorized to store the Client's personal data electronically and to process them by computer or in any other way, most particularly so that IPG may fulfil its due diligence obligations, to execute any and all transactions, to manage and/or administer the Client's account and to use such data in assessing creditworthiness or performing statistical analysis.

Without prejudice to confidentiality regulations and any other legal restrictions, the Client agrees to allow the data processed by IPG to be used by any other company or entity affiliated with IPG in The Bahamas or abroad, without requiring IPG to inform or seek the consent of the Client. Client data may also be transferred outside of The Bahamas even if the prevailing laws offer less protection.

ARTICLE 15: CONSENT TO DISCLOSE INFORMATION

The Client consents to his personal data and the affairs of the Entity being disclosed to third parties in order for the Entity to transact business with such parties. Notwithstanding the generality of the foregoing, the Client acknowledges such disclosure will be made in order to effect the opening of a bank account, meeting the requirements of services providers and professionals retained by the Entity or complying with an order of a court, regulatory authority or government or tax agency having jurisdiction over the Entity or IPG. Furthermore, the Client consents to his personal data and the affairs of the Entity being disclosed in accordance with modern international exchange of information regulations to which any of the jurisdictions in which IPG operates is a party.

ARTICLE 16: OUTSOURCING

In compliance with applicable service provider laws and regulations and, if it deems it appropriate or necessary, IPG reserves the right to outsource certain services inherent in its service provider operations, e.g. computer media and programming, the booking of transactions and other back-office tasks, to one or more companies and entities affiliated with IPG, or to third parties for an extended period of time.

ARTICLE 17: TERMINATION OF SERVICE PROVIDER RELATIONSHIP

IPG and the Client may terminate the relationship without cause at any time giving thirty (30) days written notice, provided that termination by the Client shall not be effective until the Client has discharged, or caused to be discharged all obligations to IPG, including obligations for which IPG could be made liable and all outstanding fees, expenses and charges due to IPG.

The termination of the specified services shall not relieve the Client of his obligations under these Terms and Conditions of Business and any other indemnities.

ARTICLE 18: RIGHT TO AMEND THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS

IPG reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions of Business at any time. The Client shall be informed of such amendments in writing or in any other appropriate manner. If such amendments are not protested within thirty (30) days, they shall be considered to have been approved.

ARTICLE 19: POWERS OF ATTORNEY

Should IPG grant a Power of Attorney to the Client or appoint the Client its agent for any purpose whatsoever the Client will act strictly in accordance with the terms, conditions, powers and provisions of such Power of Attorney and will not in any circumstances exceed or attempt to exceed the scope of the power or authorization thereby granted. In any event IPG shall not be liable for any act or omission by the Client under any such Power of Attorney.

ARTICLE 20: TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP

Where IPG acts as director or secretary of any company or member of the council of the Executive Entity or foundation or provides management services for the Executive Entity or foundation the Client undertakes not to transfer, pledge or otherwise hypothecate its ownership interest in the Executive Entity or foundation or the shares of the company without the prior knowledge and written consent of IPG.

ARTICLE 21: ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

The Client undertakes to adhere to all laws, including all anti-money laundering and criminal laws, rules and regulations in all relevant jurisdictions during the time the entity is administered by IPG.

The Client is deemed to be aware of Bahamian anti-money laundering legislation and undertakes to provide such additional information as may be required by IPG to verify his identity, bona-fides and/or details of the nature of transactions and/or source of funds.

If IPG makes further enquiries as to the precise source of funds for, or the nature of, a transaction, then IPG shall not be liable for any losses, of whatsoever nature, arising from any delays in effecting or consequent upon such transaction.

ARTICLE 22: FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

IPG requires that annual financial statements be prepared for all foundations, companies, subsidiaries and underlying entities for which it acts. In addition, IPG may, at its absolute discretion, require that annual financial statements be prepared for other entities to which it provides management or other services. The preparation of such annual financial statements will be deemed to be a specified service and all costs, including any time charges incurred by IPG, shall be payable in accordance with IPG's Schedule of Fees then in force.

Terms and Conditions of Business

ARTICLE 23: CLIENT UNDERTAKINGS

The Client undertakes not to directly or indirectly transact any business, enter into any commitment or otherwise engage or contract any entity for which IPG acts as a member of the council of the Executive Entity or a foundation or provides directors and/or officers or provides administration services without the prior written consent of IPG. The Client undertakes to procure that any and/or all government duties, franchise or other taxes are paid expeditiously to IPG and, where appropriate, accurate accountancy information is supplied. If late payment is made, it is agreed that the Client will pay to IPG, or procure the payment of any late filing fees, penalties, costs or other liabilities that may have been incurred as a result of such late payment.

IPG may, during the normal course of business, receive commissions, rebates and retrocessions from banks, brokers and other third parties which would not normally be available to clients. IPG may retain, and will not be required to account for, such commissions, retrocessions and rebates.

ARTICLE 24: LIEN AND RIGHT OF SET-OFF

As security for any claims which IPG may have as a result of its mutual relationship with the Client, the Client agrees that IPG shall have a first lien and security interest in and right of set-off on all securities, precious metals, holdings, claims or other assets and valuables which are currently or may in the future be held, managed or booked by IPG for the Client's entity, either directly or through correspondents.

If IPG judges that the value of the assets subject to the said lien is not sufficient to secure a claim, it shall be entitled to require the Client to add to the existing cover within a specified period of time. If the Client fails to do so, IPG's claim shall become immediately payable. If, when IPG's claim has become payable, the Client fails to repay the debt, IPG shall be entitled, without further notice and without having to comply with the forced execution procedure laid down by law, to sell all or part of the assets pledged, up to the amount of its claim plus interest, commissions, expenses and all incidental items, within such period and in such manner and order as it shall see fit, either on a stock exchange or through private transactions. IPG may, if appropriate, purchase the pledged assets itself at their immediately realisable market value as determined by market conditions. IPG may also set off a Client's accounts against one another, irrespective of the maturity dates of the assets held in such accounts and whether the accounts are in the same currency or in different currencies.

ARTICLE 25: PURCHASES AND SALES OF SECURITIES

In the event that IPG is requested to make specific investments, acquire specific assets or to appoint an Investment Advisor, IPG shall be fully indemnified in respect of its decision to act upon such request and shall not incur any liability in following such request or the recommendations of such Investment Advisor.

The Client acknowledges that IPG does not exercise any control whatsoever over orders initiated by the Investment Advisor and shall not be liable therefor. In the event that IPG is requested to vest custody and control of foundation assets in a third party, IPG shall be fully indemnified in respect of its decision to act upon such request and shall not incur any liability in following such request.

In the event of the death, legal incompetence or bankruptcy of the Client, IPG shall only accept further instructions from the Client's personal representatives, guardian or trustee-in-bankruptcy, as applicable.

ARTICLE 26: APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

These Terms and Conditions of Business shall be subject to, and be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

The Client hereby irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of competent jurisdiction in the Commonwealth of The Bahamas in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to these Terms and Conditions of Business and the Client hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceedings may be heard and determined in any such court and irrevocably waives any objection now or hereafter as to the venue of any such action or proceeding brought in such a court or the fact that such court is an inconvenient forum.

The Client irrevocably and unconditionally consents to the service of process in any such action or proceeding in any of the aforesaid courts by the mailing of copies of such process to the Client, by certified or registered mail, at his or such other parties' address notified in writing to IPG.

The Client agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of IPG to sue in any other jurisdiction.

The Client waives to the maximum extent not prohibited by law any right he may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceedings any exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

In the event that any provision of these Terms and Conditions of Business or any part thereof is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

In these Terms and Conditions of Business, where the context so permits, the masculine shall include the feminine and vice-versa, the neuter shall include the masculine and vice-versa and the singular shall include the plural and vice-versa.

I, the undersigned, authorize IPG to obtain independent verification of any information provided to IPG by me.

I declare that information supplied to IPG is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief and that I am bound by the statements and information given to IPG.

I confirm that should any changes occur to the information supplied to IPG, I will inform IPG immediately.

I further confirm that I have reviewed IPG's Schedule of Fees and accept the terms stated therein.

I further confirm I have read and understood these Terms and Conditions of Business. I further confirm that monies received into the accounts maintained by IPG are and will continue to be sourced from legitimate and legal means and are not the proceeds or profits from an illegal activity as determined under the laws of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

I hereby confirm that all sums remitted to accounts maintained by IPG are and will continue to be wholly and exclusively beneficially owned by me and no transactions will be processed on behalf of third parties.
